

Garner Named General Counsel at NYRA

“The New York Racing Association announced Oct. 13 the appointment of Joi L. Garner as senior vice president, general counsel, and corporate secretary. Garner succeeds Joe Lambert, who is retiring, and will assume her responsibilities on Oct. 15. Garner previously served as executive vice president,” reports Blood Horse in their blog.

“The marketing and licensing subsidiary of the National Basketball Players Association responsible for group product licensing, developing brand collaborations, and commercializing the likeness rights of the collective group of current NBA players. At THINK450, Garner was the lead negotiator in several of the NBPA’s most significant.”
