

Gentry Locke Promotes Scott Stephenson to Partner

The Virginia law firm Gentry Locke is pleased to announce the promotion of Scott A. Stephenson to the partnership, effective January 1, 2021.

Stephenson is a member of the firm's Business Litigation team. His experience includes complex business litigation, property disputes, mineral rights cases, municipal government litigation, and appellate matters. He thrives on the challenges presented by complicated cases and nuanced legal issues. Stephenson earned his B.A. degree from Roanoke College and his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center.
