

Globalization Partners Appoints Todd Goffman as General Counsel

“Globalization Partners, which enables companies to hire and retain global team members in 170 countries without setting up branch offices in foreign countries, ... announced Todd Goffman has joined the company as General Counsel,” reported by Globalization Partners in WFMZ-TV News.

“In addition to leading the legal team, Mr. Goffman will be responsible for corporate development, mergers and acquisitions, and managing legal compliance across the company’s entire global footprint which spans 170 countries.”

“Mr. Goffman’s 25 years of experience include leading the legal, finance and HR departments at Netcracker Technology Corporation, a Boston-headquartered company which he also led through explosive growth and the sale of the company. In addition, he advised high-growth, technology companies as a member of Testa, Hurwitz & Thibeault.”

Read the article.