Greensfelder Attorneys Courtney Adair and Caroline Paillou Named 2021 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Participants

Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C., is pleased to announce that the firm's attorneys Courtney Adair and Caroline Paillou have been chosen to represent the firm as 2021 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) participants.

An Officer in the firm's Chicago office, Adair was named as a 2021 Fellow. Paillou, an associate in the firm's St. Louis office, will participate inLCLD's Pathfinder Program. Both are members of the firm's litigation practice group.

Since 2010, Greensfelder has been a member of LCLD, a national group that includes managing partners of law firms and general counsel from major corporations. LCLD's goals are to promote diversity and inclusion in the legal profession and foster leadership skills. The LCLD Fellows Program aims to identify, train and advance the next generation of leaders. Now in its sixth year as a full-scale program, the Pathfinder program assists early-career attorneys with critical career development strategies including leadership and the building of professional networks.

For more information about Greensfelder's initiatives to foster an inclusive, diverse workplace, visit: https://www.greensfelder.com/about-diversity.html.