

Greensfelder Expands Southern Illinois Office with Addition of Paul Petruska

Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C., is pleased to announce the continued growth of its Southern Illinois office with the addition of Paul E. Petruska as counsel in the firm's Litigation practice group.

Based in Belleville, the Southern Illinois office serves the firm's clients across the Metro East area, including the eastern suburbs of St. Louis and numerous Illinois counties.

Petruska has extensive litigation and trial experience, as well as a focus on estate planning and corporate work involving small businesses. He has served as outside general counsel, assisting clients in drafting safety, employment and document retention policies, and managing human resources matters. His litigation experience includes matters related to transportation, product liability, employment, construction, personal injury, commercial catastrophic property damage, and toxic torts.

Prior to joining Greensfelder, Petruska was an attorney with the Paul Eric Law Office, LLC, most recently focusing on estate planning and corporate formation services related to circumstances surrounding COVID-19. Previously, he was the chief trial attorney for a large commercial insurer's major case unit and a partner at a boutique litigation firm.

Petruska received his J.D. (cum laude) from St. Louis University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts (magna cum laude) from St. Louis University.
