

GREENSFELDER BUSINESS SERVICES RYAN GORDON

WELCOMES ATTORNEY

Greensfelder is pleased to announce that Ryan Gordon has joined the firm's St. Louis office as an associate in its Business Services group.

Ryan plays a pivotal role on buy- and sell-side transaction teams and has experience ranging from high-value asset sales and equity-based mergers to private equity investments. His skillset includes detailed review of transaction documents, drafting of crucial deliverables, and performing comprehensive due diligence reviews.

Ryan has represented clients in large commercial mortgage-backed securities transactions and small-market reorganization and corporate governance matters. He has experience with conducting extensive research on intricate legal matters and skillfully conveying outcomes in a timely and effective manner to both legal professionals and clients.

Ryan is a member of Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis and the American Bar Association.

Ryan received his J.D. from The University of Kansas School of Law and his bachelor's in business administration from Truman State University. During his time at the University of Kansas School of Law, Ryan was an intern for the Honorable Kevin Moriarty in the Johnson County, Kansas District Court, then served as a financial services intern at the Missouri Attorney General's Office.
