Greensfelder Welcomes Trusts & Estates Attorneys Tony Westbrooks and Nina Windsor

Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C., is pleased to announce that Tony Westbrooks and Nina L. Windsor have joined the firm's St. Louis office as attorneys in the Trusts & Estates practice group.

"We are pleased to welcome Tony and Nina to our experienced team of trusts and estates attorneys offering the full range of sophisticated estate and tax planning services to our individual, family and business clients," said Greensfelder President and Chief Executive Officer Kevin T. McLaughlin.

Serving as counsel, Westbrooks helps families and businesses with sophisticated estate planning matters, advising individuals and families on protecting assets and prudently transferring wealth to younger generations and charities. He drafts and implements personalized estate plans including wills, trusts, and powers of attorney, as well as tax and charitable planning.

Prior to joining Greensfelder, Westbrooks served as compliance counsel at Edward Jones, where he provided legal and compliance advice and guidance to business areas including high-net-worth client consultation.

Westbrooks received his J.D. from Washington University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts in economics from Grinnell College.

Windsor is an associate who helps develop estate plans to protect the financial futures of families and individuals. Her experience includes drafting wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and other vital planning documents. She also assists with tax-related matters.

Before joining Greensfelder, Windsor was an attorney at Maune Raichle Hartley French & Mudd, LLC, where she assisted clients with trust, probate and tax-related matters.

Windsor received her J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts from Hillsdale College.
