

Guardian Life Names Margherita L. DiManni Deputy General Counsel

“The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America® (Guardian Life) ... appointed Margherita L. DiManni as the company’s Deputy General Counsel,” reported in Cision PR Newswire.

“As Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel, DiManni will report to Brooks and help guide Guardian’s enterprise-wide legal, compliance, corporate governance, and government affairs functions with a focus on M&A, corporate finance, capital markets, corporate real estate and other strategic initiatives.”

“Over the past 22 years, DiManni has held a variety of roles within Guardian’s law, compliance, and government affairs departments. Since 2014, DiManni has led Corporate Advisory and Transactions Counsel and managed legal support for Guardian’s corporate tax, employment, employee benefit, investments, outsourcing and vendor contracting matters. Earlier this year, she served as Guardian’s interim General Counsel following the departure of Eric Dinallo in February.”

Read the article.