

H-1B Third Party Placements – Everything Employers Need to Know

☒ Capitol Immigration Law Group offers a free on-demand webinar on recent trends in H-1B third party placements.

The webinar discusses most the trends, including update on the Neufeld Memo, consular trends and vendor liability.

The panel also reviews the most successful scenarios for fulfilling the employer-employee requirement. Presenters also discuss the recent developments in immigration compliance for off-site placements and avoiding possible criminal liability of H-1B petitioners.

The Capitol Immigration Law Group is a boutique law firm in Washington, D.C., specializing in permanent and temporary employment and family immigration law which helps both individuals and companies navigate United States immigration and naturalization law.
