Is Your Facility Compliant Under the Americans with Disabilities Act?

Hatmaker Law Group will present a complimentary webinar designed to help participants avoid claims arising from allegations that a business facility is not compliant under the American with Disabilities Act.

In a release, the firm writes, “Did you know that 40 percent of the ADA accessibility lawsuits filed in the U.S. are filed in the state of California? Have you taken the necessary steps to ensure compliance at your facility for your employees and patrons? Join us for this free one-hour webinar and learn the most common allegations charged against businesses, how to comply with the regulations and the possible extent of financial damages you can experience if found to be non-compliant, and what actions to take to avoid a claim.”

The webinar will be Wednesday, July 15, from noon until 1 p.m. Pacific time.

The guest speaker for the event will be Daniel Zoldak, Professional Engineer, Certified Access Specialist, of Lars Andersen & Associates.
