

Hippo Strengthens its Legal Team with Four Key Leadership Hires

“Hippo, the home insurance group that created a new standard of care and protection for homeowners, today announced four key leadership appointments to its legal and compliance team with combined expertise in reinsurance, insurance compliance, governance, national warranty, and federal securities laws. Hippo’s latest legal appointments, who hold deep ties with key business partners and regulators within the U.S. home insurance sector, will support the growth and expansion of Hippo’s protective home insurance products to reach millions more homeowners across the country,” released Hippo in Cision PRWeb.

“Hippo’s collaborative approach to regulation is fundamental to the company’s mission to deliver intuitive and proactive protection for its home insurance customers. The company’s innovative home insurance model allows for a proactive dialogue with state and federal regulators to ensure the customer’s safety and protection remains top of mind, both in the expansion of its insurance products and in the development of new added protective offerings. Hippo’s alignment with regulators to protect homeowners creates stronger partnerships and pathways that lead to better business practices and safer homes, customers, and surrounding communities.”
