Honeywell Names Su Ping Lu as General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Honeywell has appointed Su Ping Lu as senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary, effective May 5, 2025, succeeding Anne Madden.

Lu, who currently serves as vice president and corporate secretary and general counsel for international, will lead the company's global legal, government relations, and security functions. She will report directly to Honeywell Chairman and CEO Vimal Kapur.

Madden, who has served as general counsel since 2017, will transition to the role of senior vice president of portfolio transformation and senior advisor. In her new position, she will oversee the completion of Honeywell's planned spin-offs of its Aerospace Technologies and Advanced Materials businesses.

Lu joined Honeywell in 2009 and has held various legal leadership roles across its Aerospace Technologies division. She holds a B.A. from Stanford University and a J.D. from Columbia University.

Madden joined Honeywell's predecessor AlliedSignal in 1996. During her tenure, she led mergers and acquisitions resulting in about 100 acquisitions and 70 divestitures. Her new role aligns with Honeywell's broader strategy to streamline operations and drive growth through nearly $12 billion in recent acquisitions.

About Honeywell:

Honeywell operates across aerospace, industrial automation, building technologies, and energy sectors. The company is undergoing strategic changes to align with market megatrends including automation, aviation, and energy transition.