Houston E-Discovery Company Raises $10 Million for Expansion

E-discovery systems developer CS Disco Inc. of Houston has closed a $10 million Series B fundraising round, the Houston Business Journal reported.

Bessemer Venture Partners of Menlo Park, CA, and Austin-based LiveOak Venture Partners led the round of fundraising.

The *Houston Business Journa*l reported that Trevor Jefferies, a lawyer in Arnold & Porter's Houston office, and Stephen Wallace, former general counsel of Houston-based Westlake Chemical also invested.

The plan is to use the money to scale CS Disco to a national spotlight, versus the regional presence it has today, CEO Kiwi Camara said in a blog post.

Read the story.