Houston Energy Giant Names New GC

Enterprise Products Partners L.P. announced Dec. 17 the election of Craig W. Murray as group senior vice president and general counsel, Harry Paul “Hap” Weitzel as senior vice president and deputy general counsel and Vijay A. D’Cruz as vice president, litigation. Each of the appointments is effective Jan. 5, 2015.

The company is based in Houston.

Most recently, Murray was a senior partner at Vinson & Elkins LLP in Houston where he focused primarily on corporate and energy-related finance, including pipeline financing. His energy finance experience has involved oil and gas properties in all major producing states, as well as the Gulf of Mexico. Murray earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee and a JD from the Louisiana State University Law Center.

Murray will succeed Stephanie Hildebrandt as general counsel, who will join the Houston office of the global business law firm Norton Rose Fulbright as a partner in February.
