

IAC Appoints Kendall Handler to Senior Vice President & General Counsel

“IAC (NASDAQ: IAC) today announced the appointment of Kendall Handler to Senior Vice President and General Counsel, succeeding Gregg Winiarski who will step down December 31, 2020 after more than a decade in the General Counsel role. Ms. Handler, who currently serves as Vice President, Mergers & Acquisitions Counsel at IAC, will take on the General Counsel position effective January 1, 2021, overseeing all legal, compliance and human resources functions for the company,” IAC provided to Cision PR Newswire.

“Ms. Handler joined IAC in 2017 as lead M&A Counsel, and in that role has led some of IAC’s largest transactions, including its acquisition of Care.com and its $1 billion investment in MGM.”

Read the article.