

Ideanomics Inc. Launch Public Offer for the Purchase of Energica Motor Company S.p.a.

Greco Vitali Associati Studio Legale, with the partner Matteo Vitali and associate Matteo Miramondi, and Venable LLP, American law firm with offices in New York, with Venable partner William N. Haddad and Venable associates Poornima Gopoji and Arif Soto, advised Ideanomics Inc., a company incorporated under laws of USA listed on NASDAQ and active in the supply of diversified solutions for the electric mobility, in the launch of the voluntary public offer for the purchase of all the shares of Energica Motor Company S.p.a., Italian company listed on Euronext Growth Milan, leader in the production and sale of electric motorcycles.

The offer was launched by Ideanomics Inc. in concert with the founders of Energica Motor Company S.p.a., advised by ADVANT-Nctm, with the partner Lukas Plattner, the salary partner Andrea Iovieno and the associate Antonio Principato.

Following the success of the offer, Ideanomics is currently the owner of 71.64 percent of Energica Motor Company S.p.a. shares. The purpose of the offer is to obtain the revocation of Energica's shares from the negotiations on Euronext Growth Milan and to support the growth of Energica Motor Company S.p.a. to which Ideanomics Inc. intends to contribute by leveraging the experience gained in financial services and disruptive technology industries.
