

Immigration: Artist & Entertainer Work Visas and Green Cards

✖ Wolfsdorf Rosenthal has posted a free on-demand webinar about issues regarding visas and green cards for artists and entertainers.

On its website, the firm says this session explores the O & P visas and EB-11 green card categories as well as strategies for successful processing for various artists of extraordinary ability in the arts including the film, television, music and entertainment.

In addition, there is an in-depth insight into how to qualify and meet the various eligibility criteria, along with a general overview of application procedures including obtaining advisory opinions and timelines.

The moderator is Cliff Rosenthal.

Watch the on-demand webinar.