

Information Governance and the Law Firm

✖ In this month's Knowledge Leadership Webinar presented byBusiness Intelligence Associates, guest speaker Leigh Isaacs, IGP, CIP, ERMP, Director of Records & Information Governance for Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, will tell why eDiscovery was the best thing to happen to RIM/IG, and why law firms are now talking about governance.

The one-hour webinar will be Thursday, August 21, beginning at 1 p.m. Eastern time.

Leigh Isaacs, IGP, CIP, ERMP is the Director – Records & Information Governance for Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP. She has over 30 years of combined legal and information governance experience. Leigh's expertise includes strategic design and deployment of enterprise programs, development of information management programs, on and off-site storage considerations including outsourcing, process improvements, evaluation and implementation of technology solutions and the disposition of information for dissolved entities.

An active member of ILTA, Leigh currently serves as the Information Governance Peer Group Vice President. She is also a Steering Committee member for the Law Firm Information Governance Symposium, is a Trustee for the ARMA International Education Foundation and is on the Advisory Board for the IG Initiative. Leigh recently developed the curriculum for and delivered an information governance course for The Organization of Legal Professionals. She is a past President for the GWDC ARMA Chapter and is a published author and speaker on issues relating to information governance.

Contact rthompson@biaprotect.com for more information.

Register for the webinar.