International Contracts: Preventing Problems and Managing Disputes

International law firm offers a free on-demand webinar that serves as a guide to managing risk before, during and after disputes arise in international contracts.

On its website, Eversheds says the webinar focuses on various issues which commonly arise in international contracts and will provide practical tips on how to deal with them by reference to recent cases.

Richard Little and Alison Brearey are the presenters for the session.

Eversheds is one of the world's largest corporate law firms. It maintains more than 40 offices based in the world's major economic centers, with a proven track record of delivering consistently high quality legal services across jurisdictions.
