

Discovery Management Practice Inventus Acquires Unified OS

Inventus, LLC, a leading national discovery management practice to Fortune 1000 corporations, global law firms and government agencies backed by Clearlake Capital Group, L.P., has announced the acquisition of London based Unified OS Ltd. and certain of its affiliates.

In a news release, Inventus said that Unified is a leading provider of eDiscovery and managed attorney review services to Fortune 1000 corporations, global law firms and government agencies abroad. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

“Inventus’ acquisition of Unified marks its significant expansion into international markets and its focus on adding attorney review to its suite of services,” the release said. “The combined business creates an international, full legal process outsourcing (“LPO”) solution capable of servicing clients operating in multiple jurisdictions around the globe. Inventus will remain headquartered in Chicago and Trevor Campion will continue to lead the combined company as Chief Executive Officer.”

Read the story.