

Jackson Walker Expands Commercial Leasing Experience With Addition of Fort Worth Partner Travis McNellie

Jackson Walker is pleased to announce the addition of Travis W. McNellie as a partner in the Fort Worth office. Joining our nationally recognized Real Estate practice, Travis boosts the Firm's experience handling commercial leases, particularly involving office and industrial properties, across Texas and the United States.

In his practice, McNellie primarily focuses on representing institutional landlords of office and industrial projects, and he also has extensive experience representing tenants. In addition to leases, McNellie handles the acquisition, development, and disposition of various types of real property.

In recognition of his real estate experience, he has been named among Thomson Reuters' "Texas Super Lawyers" list since 2017 and Fort Worth Magazine's "Top Attorneys" list since 2007.

McNellie received his J.D., magna cum laude, from Texas Tech University School of Law and his B.B.A. from Tarleton State University.

In addition to McNellie, the Fort Worth real estate group also welcomes Sara C. Thornton as an associate. In her practice, Thornton focuses on a wide range of real estate and real estate finance matters. She regularly represents landlords and tenants in commercial leases, and has experience handling landlord-tenant disputes. She also represents purchasers, owners, and developers in connection with the acquisition, disposition, development, and finance of improved and unimproved real property.

Thornton received her J.D., summa cum laude, from Texas Tech University School of Law and her B.A., summa cum laude, from the University of North Texas.
