

Jacob Hanson Joins Bradley's Tampa Office as Litigation Associate

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Jacob Hanson has joined the firm's Tampa office as an associate in the Litigation Practice Group.

"We are pleased to welcome Jacob to our growing team of attorneys in Tampa," said Bradley Tampa Office Managing Partner Craig Mayfield. "Jacob brings valuable litigation experience that will benefit our clients throughout Florida. We are excited to continue building with lawyers of Jacob's quality at any time, but particularly proud to be successfully adding his strength during the current environment."

Mr. Hanson defends clients in first-party property, coverage, and bad faith actions throughout Florida. His experience includes advocating at motion hearings, drafting pleadings and motions, propounding and responding to discovery, negotiating settlements, and advising clients on their legal options while also considering the business ramifications of those options.

Before joining Bradley, Mr. Hanson served as a law clerk to the Hon. James S. Moody, Jr., on the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida. He earned his J.D. (magna cum laude) from Stetson University College of Law and his Bachelor of Science from the University of Florida.

The Litigation Practice Group is Bradley's largest practice and includes nearly half of the firm's more than 500 attorneys who represent clients in litigation and arbitration in every U.S. state and federal district court across the country, as well as internationally. Attorneys handle matters in nearly every substantive area of business law and in a wide range of industries, including high-stakes and complex cases.
