Jeff Beuche Brings Back Expertise to Bolster M&A Growth

DENVER (September 9, 2025) – Back in the heart of Denver's legal scene, veteran dealmaker Jeff Beuche has rejoined Perkins Coie. His return reignites the firm's strategic focus on complex mergers and acquisitions. Known for his practical and straightforward counsel, Beuche's comeback marks a major boost to the firm's growing M&A platform.

A seasoned M&A partner, Beuche brings decades of experience navigating high-stakes transactions. He has advised public and private companies, investors, founders, and management teams through transformative deals. His client base spans diverse industries, including technology, semiconductors, life sciences, healthcare, consumer products, energy, and natural resources.

"We are happy to welcome an M&A lawyer of Jeff's caliber and stature back to Perkins Coie," said Jason Day, co-chair of the firm's Corporate practice. "He intuitively navigates clients through deal complexities. His experience in executing sophisticated transactions is unmatched."

Beuche is a cornerstone returning to a foundation he helped shape. His deep connection with the firm's collaborative environment and client-first values is expected to strengthen its M&A capabilities. His return aligns perfectly with Perkins Coie's national growth strategy.

"I couldn't be happier to rejoin Perkins Coie," Beuche said. "What sets this firm apart is the mix of market insight, technical excellence, and pragmatic execution. Clients truly benefit from that. And being part of a people-first, collaborative platform like Perkins Coie's is essential to me.”

This move follows Perkins Coie’s expansion in Texas earlier this year. The firm welcomed a high-performing group of M&A and private equity lawyers in Dallas and Austin. These strategic hires underscore the firm’s ongoing commitment to innovative clients and high-growth businesses nationwide.

Beuche’s vast industry reach and strong transactional record make him a valuable resource. Whether guiding software startups or advising energy giants, he brings adaptable legal expertise. His academic background, including a B.A. from the University of Michigan and a J.D. from the University of Colorado, further reinforces his credibility.

As the M&A landscape evolves, Jeff Beuche’s return marks more than just a reunion. It signifies a powerful resurgence of experienced, trusted deal-making—at a time when businesses need it most.

Get Useful Resources:

Former U.S. Attorney for Southern California, Tara McGrath, joins Perkins Coie in the Litigation practice as a partner in San Diego.