

Jeffrey Lehtman Joins Miller & Chevalier

Miller & Chevalier Chartered today announced that veteran litigation, compliance, and government investigations attorney Jeffrey Lehtman has joined the firm as a Member in the Litigation Department. Lehtman comes to the firm from Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati.

Lehtman counsels multinational companies, financial institutions, international development banks, and senior officers and directors on a range of complex compliance and investigation matters, including those relating to the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), anti-money laundering, and economic sanctions regulations as well as investigations relating to potential accounting, disclosure, market manipulation, and other securities-related matters before the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the U.S. Department of Justice, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and various other domestic and international authorities. Fluent in Spanish, Lehtman frequently represents global companies, financial institutions, and financial services companies based in or operating in Latin America.

Lehtman earned his J.D. cum laude from the University of Michigan Law School, and his B.A. summa cum laude from Vanderbilt University.