Jessica Sparhawk Joins Bradley's Montgomery Office as Litigation Associate

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Jessica Sparhawk has joined the firm's Montgomery office as an associate in the Litigation Practice Group.

"We are happy to welcome Jessica to our experienced team of litigators in Montgomery," said Bradley Montgomery Office Managing Partner Robert Emmett Poundstone IV.

Ms. Sparhawk received her J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law, where she was a member of the University of Miami Law Review. During law school, she was a clinic intern for The Eleanor R. Cristol and Judge A. Jay Cristol Bankruptcy Pro Bono Assistance Clinic. She received her Bachelor of Arts (magna cum laude) from the University of Nevada.

The Litigation Practice Group is Bradley's largest practice and includes almost half of the firm's nearly 550 attorneys who represent clients in litigation and arbitration in every U.S. state and federal district court across the country, as well as internationally. Attorneys handle matters in nearly every substantive area of business law and in a wide range of industries, including high-stakes and complex cases.
