

John Hairr Elected Board Chair of North Carolina Wildlife Federation

Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein LLP is pleased to announce that Charlotte partner John Hairr has been elected chair of the North Carolina Wildlife Federation's board of directors.

Hairr has volunteered with conservation groups for more than 20 years. He has served on the NCWF's board since 2013 and its Executive Committee since 2017. He also chaired its Governance Committee from 2015 to 2020. He previously served on the Catawba Lands Conservancy's board of directors for six years.

At Parker Poe, Hairr has 30 years of experience advising clients on domestic and international mergers, acquisitions, and other business transactions. He also serves as outside counsel to companies, helping them navigate their day-to-day legal needs. His clients include Fortune 500 corporations, closely held companies, startups, and local governments.
