

John J. Barnosky Joins Maurer Foundation Board of Directors

Farrell Fritz is pleased to announce that John (Jack) Barnosky has joined the Maurer Foundation's Board of Directors.

Barnosky, a partner in the firm's Uniondale office, practices trust and estate law, concentrating on estate planning, probate and administration of estates and trusts, and taxation. He also represents clients in litigated trust and estate matters, including will contests, disputes over the validity of trusts, contested accounting proceedings, and tax disputes before the Surrogate's Courts and other courts throughout New York. In addition to his work at Farrell Fritz, he is a frequent lecturer at New York State Bar Association seminars on trust and estate practice and has written articles published in the New York Law Journal, The Nassau Lawyer, and the Journal of the Suffolk Academy of Law. Barnosky is a past chair of the trust and estate committee of the Nassau County Bar Association as well as Chair of the Trust and Estate section of the New York State Bar association.

Barnosky, a Halesite resident, earned his LL.M. from New York University School of Law, his J.D. from St. John's University School of Law and his A.B. from Assumption College.

The Maurer Foundation, established in 1995, is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit based in Melville, NY. The Foundation's mission is to save lives through breast health education that focuses on breast cancer prevention, early detection, risk reduction and healthy lifestyle choices.
