Jonathan W. Chambers Promoted to Partner at SDV

Naples, Florida – Jonathan W. Chambers has been promoted to partner at Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. (SDV), effective Jan. 1, 2026. Chambers is recognized for his strategic legal approach and leadership in complex insurance coverage matters.

“Throughout his tenure at SDV, Chambers has been noted for his practical, results-driven style and calm demeanor under pressure. He is widely respected for his solution-oriented approach and calm demeanor under pressure, earning the confidence of clients and colleagues alike. This elevation reflects both his professional achievements and the meaningful impact he has made on our firm’s culture, reputation, and continued success. We are confident that he will play a key role in driving the firm’s future growth and strengthening its long-term success,” says Stephanie Giagnorio, Managing Partner of SDV’s Southeast office.

Jonathan’s elevation to partner underscores SDV’s continued commitment to recognizing leadership, fostering talent, and investing in the firm’s long-term success. SDV congratulates Jonathan on this well-earned achievement and looks forward to his continued contributions as a member of the partnership.

SDV is a national law firm focused exclusively on representing policyholders in insurance coverage disputes.
