Joshua Rosenberg Joins Venable's Litigation Practice in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, CA (January 18, 2022) – Venable LLP is pleased to announce that Joshua Rosenberg has joined the firm as a partner in the Litigation Practice in the Los Angeles office.

Mr. Rosenberg handles a wide range of complex litigation matters, including breach of contract, copyright and trademark infringement, employment disputes, defamation, invasion of privacy, and general business matters.

Mr. Rosenberg has represented numerous entertainment industry clients, including studios, production companies, talent agencies, management companies, concert promoters, record labels, recording artists, actors, writers, directors, producers, studio executives, and social media influencers. He has also represented manufacturers, real estate developers, high-net-worth individuals, and nonprofit organizations.

Mitchell Evall, partner-in-charge of Venable's Los Angeles office, said, "Josh has built an impressive practice handling high-profile cases on behalf of noteworthy individuals and companies. He will make a great addition to our roster of talented litigators, particularly in the entertainment space, and we are very excited to have him join us."

Geoffrey R. Garinther, chair of Venable's Litigation Division, said, "Josh's breadth of experience will be invaluable to our clients, augmenting an already deep bench of trial lawyers in California."

Commenting on his move to Venable, Mr. Rosenberg said, "Venable has a stellar reputation, a national presence, a prestigious client roster, and a great platform that will enable me to provide my clients with top-notch service. I am looking forward to collaborating with their acclaimed litigators as well as others within the firm."

Mr. Rosenberg received his J.D. from Loyola Law School in 2010, his M.F.A. from the University of Southern California in 2003, and his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania in 2001.
