

KURT MUELLER JOINS GREENSFELDER AS BUSINESS SERVICES ATTORNEY

Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C. is pleased to announce that Kurt J.H. Mueller has joined the firm as counsel in its Business Services practice group, based in Greensfelder's Chicago office.

With more than 25 years of corporate law experience, Mueller provides a distinct perspective through his advising of private equity and venture capital funds, businesses of all sizes from start-ups to large multinational companies, hedge funds and individual investors.

Mueller's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, venture capital and private equity investments, fund formations and sophisticated joint venture transactions. His experience also includes corporate governance, credit facilities, employment agreements, leases, intellectual property agreements and all manner of other agreements documenting business transactions.

Before joining Greensfelder, Mueller practiced as a partner and senior counsel at several prominent national firms. He has also worked as in-house counsel for a large bank's private equity and strategic investing business, where he advised investment professionals on portfolio company acquisitions and dispositions, including applicable banking regulatory matters. He earned his J.D., cum laude, from Boston University and his B.B.A. in Accounting and Finance from the University of Wisconsin.
