L. Justin Burney Joins Bradley's Huntsville Office as Corporate and Securities Partner

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that L. Justin Burney has joined the firm's Huntsville office as a partner in the Corporate and Securities Practice Group.

"It is a pleasure to welcome Justin to our Huntsville office," said Bradley Huntsville Office Managing Partner Frank M. Caprio. "Justin brings more than a decade of experience practicing corporate law in Alabama for major clients across many industries."

Mr. Burney represents a broad range of clients in corporate and transactional matters, including contract negotiation and preparation, entity formation, corporate restructuring, corporate finance issues, M&A, and real estate sales and acquisitions. He also has significant experience preparing agreements involving licensing of software and technology to and from third parties. In addition, he represents government contracting companies in negotiating and preparing subcontracts, teaming agreements and joint venture documents, qualifying for socio-economic programs, interpreting the Federal Acquisition Regulation and Small Business Association regulations, and prosecuting and defending bid protest actions. His other experience includes guiding healthcare and dental providers on regulatory compliance matters involving health information privacy and compensation.

Prior to joining Bradley, Mr. Burney was an attorney at Maynard, Cooper & Gale, P.C.

Mr. Burney received his J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law. He also holds a Master of Science and a Bachelor of Science (cum laude), both in chemical engineering from the University of Alabama.

Attorneys in Bradley’s nationally recognized Corporate and Securities Practice Group guide and advise clients in a variety of industries, working with emerging companies, family and closely held business, and publicly traded corporations, as well as venture capital and private equity funds and their operating companies.
