Law Firm Management: Everything is Going Mobile – What you Need to Know Now

Avvo has posted a free on-demand webinar on how to optimize a law firm's website for mobile search and will discuss the world of mobile websites.

On its website, Avvo says it is almost impossible to buy a phone that is not "smart" today. Google estimates that in 2015 mobile devices will surpass desktop computers for accessing the Internet. We are going to cover eveything you need to know about mobile.

In this webinar, Jabez LeBret, best-selling legal technology author and co-founder of the law firm marketing agency GNGF, shows how to optimize for mobile search and discuss the world of mobile websites.
