

Law Schools With Accreditation Issues See Bar Exam Improvement, But Will They Hit 75% Pass Rate?

The mean scaled score for the July 2019 multistate bar exam increased this year, according to the National Conference of Bar Examiners and reported in the ABA Journal.

“But for a small number of schools found to be out of compliance with an ABA accreditation admissions standard, some have concerns that even with bar pass rate improvements, they still may not meet a new standard that requires pass rates of at least 75% for graduates who took a bar exam in the past two years,” writes the Journal's Stephanie Francis Ward.

Read the ABA Journal article.