

Lawyer in Ex-Mobster's Toby Keith Restaurant Scheme Gets Prison Term

"The Arizona lawyer who helped an ex-mobster orchestrate the failure of a nationwide chain of Toby Keith restaurants was sentenced Monday to six months in prison," reports Robert Anglen in azcentral's Investigations.

"Gregory McClure also must repay $1.3 million he admitted stealing, as part of his deal to cooperate with federal prosecutors. They are going after his former employer on fraud charges."

"McClure, during the hour-long court hearing, told Arizona U.S. District Court Judge G. Murray Snow he was 'ashamed and embarrassed' by his conduct."
