

Lewis Roca Lawyer Selected to Inaugural ABA Business Bankruptcy Committee 20/20 Partners Rising Young Leader Award

Lewis Roca announced Adrienne Brantley-Lomeli has been selected as a member of the inaugural class of the Business Bankruptcy Committee 20/20 Partners Rising Young Leader Award. This American Bar Association Business Law Section Business Bankruptcy Committee award recognizes the nation's top young bankruptcy lawyers who have demonstrated the commitment to business bankruptcy, community involvement, leadership, and professionalism. Brantley-Lomeli is one of 19 recipients to receive this award.

As a member of the firm's Litigation Practice Group, Brantley-Lomeli focuses her practice on commercial litigation which includes commercial finance litigation and bankruptcy disputes. Her bankruptcy practice includes experience with creditors' rights, secured party representation, as well as representing bankruptcy trustees and state court receivers. Prior to joining Lewis Roca, Brantley-Lomeli earned a Masters degree in diplomacy and military studies with an emphasis in national security and strategic studies. She also served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Judge Israel of the 8th Judicial District Court.

Brantley-Lomeli received her J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, William S. Boyd School of Law, her M.A., with honors distinction, from Hawaii Pacific University and her B.A. from the University of Arizona.

About Lewis Roca

Lewis Roca is an Am Law 200 law firm serving clients globally in complex litigation, intellectual property, business transactions, gaming, government relations, labor and employment, and regulatory counseling. Its offices are located in Albuquerque, Colorado Springs, Denver, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Reno, Silicon Valley, and Tucson. To learn more about the firm, please visit us at our new website at www.lewisroca.com.

###