

LGBT Issues and U.S. Employment Law: What Employers Need to Know

✖ Hirschfeld Kraemer will present a free webinar designed to help employers seeking an LGBT-inclusive workplace and the challenges they face.

The 90-minute webinar will be Tuesday, Sept. 9, beginning at noon Pacific time.

The webinar will include an update on the status of the Federal Employment Non-Discrimination Act; ERISA compliance issues and tax implications for employers and employees with respect to benefits provided to employees in same-sex marriages, civil unions, and domestic partnerships; coverage of non-discrimination laws for LGBT employees; and policies and practices in the everyday life of a workplace (harassment and bullying, confidentiality, restrooms, employee) that H.R. departments need to know.

Register for the webinar.
