

Linda M. Lovett, Esq. Joins Provenir as In-house Legal Counsel

Provenir, a global leader in risk decisioning and data analytics software, welcomes Linda M. Lovett, Esq. as their in-house Legal Counsel. In her new role, Linda will be responsible for overseeing all Provenir's commercial legal matters and supporting all Provenir's new and existing product offerings, which include the Provenir Cloud Suite delivering data, decisioning, insight and solutions capabilities.

As a Columbia Law School Stone scholar, Linda brings a wealth of commercial legal experience as well as deep expertise in international and Fintech law. Prior to joining Provenir, Linda led significant engagements across debt restructuring, securities, and mergers and acquisitions, and negotiated more than 5,000 complex commercial agreements for large Fintech corporations, small start-up companies major New York law firms and non-profit foundations.