

LITTLER WELCOMES SENIOR COUNSEL COLLEEN VETTER IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS (August 22, 2023) – Littler, the world's largest employment and labor law practice representing management, welcomes Colleen Vetter as senior counsel in its St. Louis office. Vetter joins from Deloitte and previously served as Director of the Workers' Compensation Division at the Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

"We couldn't be more thrilled to have Colleen join our team in St. Louis," said Patricia Martin, St. Louis office managing shareholder. "Colleen is a seasoned employment and labor litigator and has significant appellate practice experience, both of which will greatly bolster the services we offer our clients."

For over 30 years, Vetter has represented plaintiffs and defendants in state, civil, administrative and federal court in matters ranging from commercial contracts, real estate and construction to workers' compensation and class actions, among others. She also has extensive public sector experience: in addition to serving as Director of the Workers' Compensation Division, Vetter was Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Litigation Division of the Missouri Attorney General's Office, where she represented state employees and agencies in a variety of matters, in state and federal court, through all stages of litigation and appeal.

Vetter is also an active member of Missouri's business and legal communities. She has served on the board of governors of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis (BAMSL), is a member of the Women Lawyers Association and has served as a volunteer arbitrator and mediator for the Missouri Bar

Association's Fee Dispute Resolution Program. Additionally, Vetter has lectured before the Missouri Bar and BAMSL CLE seminars, assisted Legal Services of Eastern Missouri and been a Court Appointed Special Advocates volunteer for St. Louis County.

Vetter earned her J.D. from St. Louis University School of Law and her B.A. from Webster University in St. Louis and Geneva, Switzerland.
