

Liverpool Goalkeeper Alisson Extends Anfield Stay with New Six-Year Contract

“Alisson has become the latest Liverpool player to sign a new long term contract with the club after extending his stay until 2027. Liverpool’s first choice goalkeeper, widely recognised as one of the finest in the world, signed a new six-year deal on Wednesday at the club’s pre season training camp,” reports Andy Hunter in The Guardian.

“He follows Trent Alexander Arnold and Fabinho, who in recent days have signed new four and five year contracts respectively, in committing his long-term future to Jürgen Klopp’s side. Alisson, signed for £65m from Roma in 2018, said I think I didn’t waste too much time to think about that. It’s something we just built in those last.”

Read the article.