

Maura A. McLoughlin Joins Farrell Fritz's Commercial and Estate Litigation Departments as Managing Attorney

Farrell Fritz is pleased to welcome Maura A. McLoughlin to its Uniondale office as managing attorney for the firm's commercial and estate litigation departments.

McLoughlin is responsible for the management and tracking of the firm's commercial and estate litigation cases. She serves as a resource on planned and implemented rule changes and creates, maintains, and updates forms files with respect to pleadings, discovery, and recurring brief issues.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Maura was managing attorney at Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP for almost 18 years.

McLoughlin is a Brooklyn, NY, resident. She earned her J.D. from St. John's University School of Law and her B.A. from American University. McLoughlin is admitted to the New York bar.