

MBA Taps Michael Briggs As New SVP And General Counsel

“The Mortgage Bankers Association named Michael Briggs as its new senior vice president and general counsel. Briggs joins the MBA from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, where he most recently served as Assistant General Counsel for the Consumer Law Section,” reports National Mortgage Professionals.

“The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) named Michael Briggs as its new senior vice president and general counsel. Briggs will serve as MBA’s chief legal officer and will be responsible for managing the legal affairs of the association and its subsidiaries and affiliates. He will also oversee the human resources department and the MBA Opens Doors Foundation, MBA’s 501(c)(3) charity that provides mortgage and rental payment assistance to families with critically-ill or injured children, allowing parents and guardians to be by a child’s side during treatment.”

“Prior to joining MBA, Briggs spent a dozen years at the FDIC, where he held a number of leadership roles within the legal division. As assistant general counsel for the consumer law section, he led a team that delivered advice and counsel throughout the agency on a variety of consumer protection, real estate finance, bank supervision, enforcement, financial technology, community development, and economic inclusion matters.”
