

Nutri Bullet Over Heating Blenders $10M Class Action Settlement

“Nutri Bullet LLC has agreed to a $10 million class action lawsuit settlement to resolve claims some of its blenders are prone to overheating. The class is made up of anyone who purchased, for non-commercial use and not for resale, any new or reconditioned 600 or 900-watt Nutri Bullet blender. the United,” reports Top Class Actions in their blog.

“Nutribullet makes a viriety of small appliances and related products such as juicers, food processors, smoothie mixes, supplements and more. However, according to the plaintiff in a class action lawsuit, Nutri Bullet should be letting consumers know not to operate certain blender models continuously for more than one minute.”
