Michael Best Names Matthew Moss as Chief Financial Officer

Michael Best is pleased to announce the addition of Matthew (Matt) Moss to the firm as Chief Financial Officer. Moss will be based in the firm's Chicago office.

As the firm's Chief Financial Officer, Moss will lead the Accounting and Finance operations, supporting the success of the firm's clients, partners, employees, and other stakeholders. He will work to advance the strategic priorities of the firm and provide sound financial stewardship. Bringing more than fifteen years of experience, Moss joins the firm's executive c-suite alongside the chief growth officer, chief talent officer and chief innovation & technology officer.

"Matt's extensive experience in a variety of professional service fields will be a great asset to our firm and our clients as we continue to provide new and innovative approaches particularly in the areas of pricing and adoption of technologies to deliver legal services as efficiently as possible to our clients," said David Krutz, Firm Managing Partner. "His business acumen will also help guide the firm as we continue our growth in new markets like North Carolina and Colorado, as well as new services through Michael Best Strategies."

Prior to joining Michael Best, Moss held leadership roles including serving as the Senior Director of Financial Operations for Huron Consulting Group and Midwest Finance Director for Willis Towers Watson. In these roles, Matthew consistently spearheaded finance and accounting operations while successfully implementing multiple large initiatives to drive strategic vision.

Moss received his B.S. in Communication from Illinois State University, and his M.B.A. from The University of Chicago Booth School of Business.
