

Michael Goldsticker Joins Parker Poe's Business Litigation Team in Raleigh

Raleigh, N.C. – Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein LLP is pleased to announce that Michael Goldsticker has joined the firm's Raleigh office as counsel. Goldsticker is a former Assistant U.S. Attorney with significant experience in large-scale investigations, and he strengthens Parker Poe's Business Litigation Team.

Goldsticker concentrates his practice on business litigation, white collar criminal defense, and government and internal investigations. He has tried numerous cases as a prosecutor and on behalf of businesses and individuals before juries and arbitration panels throughout the country.

Prior to joining Parker Poe, Goldsticker served as a federal prosecutor in the District of Maryland, overseeing sweeping investigations into violations of federal criminal laws, including those involving corruption and money laundering. Earlier in his career, Goldsticker was a litigator at Williams & Connolly in Washington, D.C., where he focused on complex civil litigation and criminal defense.

Goldsticker joins Parker Poe's Business Litigation Team, which has extensive experience representing clients before state and federal courts, governmental agencies, and national and international arbitration panels. The firm's trial attorneys have decades of first-chair experience and a proven track record of resolving disputes across a broad array of industries, including energy, financial services, health care, insurance, life sciences, manufacturing, real estate, and technology. Goldsticker is licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia.
