

Michael K. Hurst Achieves Certification from the National Board of Trial Advocacy

The National Board of Trial Advocacy has announced that Michael K. Hurst, partner in the Dallas firm of Lynn Pinker Hurst & Schwegmann LLP, has achieved board certification in the national organization. The NBTA follows an objective set of standards based on an attorney's experience and expertise in trial law in granting certification, a distinction reached by less than three percent of practicing lawyers in the U.S.