

Michael L. Fallarino of Farrell Fritz to Receive Long Island Business News' CFO of the Year Award

Farrell Fritz's Director of Finance, Michael (Mike) L. Fallarino, will be a recipient of Long Island Business News' "CFO of the Year" award. He will be honored at a reception on Thursday, September 24, 2015 at 6 p.m. at Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury, NY.

Fallarino, a Levittown, NY, resident, joined Farrell Fritz in 1996. He has in-depth experience in all financial matters, including financial statements and analyses, budgeting, billing, accounts receivable, accounts payable, payroll, benefit administration, insurance and accounting systems, the firm said in a release.

The release continues:

Outside of work, Mike supports the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island. As current vice chairman, he sits on several committees, including the executive, finance and audit committees. Prior to joining the board of directors in 2012, he was a member of the business advisory board. Mike has also been an active member in his community, serving on many boards and organizations.

The CFO of the Year program will recognize Long Island's top financial officers for their outstanding fiscal leadership and asset management, contributions to their company's performance, their contribution and commitment to their profession and organizations, as well as their involvement in the community.
