The Board and Long-Term Value Creation

The National Association of Corporate Directors has published the NACD Blue Ribbon Commission Report, which emphasizes that directors have a fundamental responsibility to ensure that the organization's short-term actions are well aligned with its long-term strategy.

This NACD report focuses on the specific levers the board has to encourage this alignment. It includes specific recommendations, suggested action steps, and boardroom tools.

The full report is available exclusively to NACD members, but the complimentary executive summary is available for download.

Download the summary.