

Nationwide Anti-Robocall Litigation Task Force Created to Fight Estimated $29.8B in Scam Call Theft

“A new nationwide Anti-Robocall Litigation Task Force has been created, looking to crack down on the calls that lead to an estimated $29.8 billion stolen through scam calls each year, according to the National Consumer Law Center and Electronic Privacy Information Center. The task force which is compose,” reports Jon Styf in The Center Square.

“All 50 state attorneys generals will work to go after bad actors in telecommunications and will work to cut down the number of robocalls that residents throughout the United States receive. Robocalls aren’t just an Illinois problem. They are a nationwide problem, said Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul. That is why I am proud to join.”
