

Neal Gerber Eisenberg Adds Jeff Glickman as Partner in Private Wealth Practice

Chicago-based law firm Neal Gerber Eisenberg (NGE) announced the addition of Jeffrey D. Glickman as a partner in its Private Wealth practice group. Glickman specializes in estate planning, trust administration, and wealth transfer strategies, with a background that includes accounting and tax law.

Licensed in Illinois and Florida, Glickman advises clients on constructing estate plans that align with both business and personal goals. His experience includes drafting various trust types such as revocable, irrevocable, and charitable trusts and handling modifications through settlement agreements and trust decantings.

NGE Managing Partner Robert G. Gerber highlighted Glickman's tax-focused approach as a complement to the firm's existing strengths, noting his expertise in guiding corporate trustees and business owners through complex planning processes.

Glickman, a former CPA and tax accountant, earned his law degree cum laude from Northwestern University School of Law. He also holds graduate and undergraduate degrees in accounting from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

He is an active member of the Chicago legal community, participating in the Chicago Bar Association and the Chicago Estate Planning Council.
