

Neal Gerber Eisenberg Adds Partner Frank Paolini to Private Wealth Group

Neal Gerber Eisenberg (NGE) is pleased to announce the addition of Frank Paolini as a partner in the Private Wealth Services practice group. Paolini joins from Dentons, where he was partner in the Chicago Trusts, Estates and Wealth Preservation group.

Paolini advises high net worth individuals, family offices and businesses on multifaceted trust and estate planning, administration, litigation and dispute resolution. He has considerable experience developing tailor-made legal strategies for protecting and transferring wealth. He has also represented numerous fiduciaries of trusts and estates in disputes and litigation regarding the dispensation of assets, breaches of fiduciary duty, and other administrative challenges.

“Frank’s varied experience as an advisor enhances our ability to meet the diverse and increasingly complex needs of our private wealth clients,” said Bobby Gerber, Managing Partner of NGE. “I’m pleased to welcome Frank to the firm and look forward to working together.”

Prior to joining Dentons, Paolini was an associate at Plunkett Cooney in Detroit, where he was named one of Michigan Lawyers Weekly’s Up & Coming Lawyers.

“Frank’s litigation and dispute resolution experience make him a valued addition and deepens the capabilities of our group,” said Larry Richman, chair of the firm’s Private Wealth Services practice group. “His skills will greatly benefit our high net worth clients.”

Paolini received his J.D. from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law and his B.A. from the University of Michigan.
